

Centrelink Jobs Expo

KEEP AUSTRALIA WORKING

THE CENTRELINK JOBS EXPO IS COMING TO COFFS HARBOUR. IT'S PART OF AN AUSTRALIA WIDE STRATEGY SUPPORTING AUSTRALIAN JOBS AND INDUSTRY.

TIME	10am - 3pm
DATE	Friday, 12 November 2010
VENUE	Coffs Harbour Showground Pacific Highway Coffs Harbour

WHAT'S THE EXPO ABOUT?

The Centrelink Jobs Expo is part of the Australian Government's Keep Australia Working strategy to support Australian industry and jobs. As an exhibitor, you'll be playing a part in the Keep Australia Working initiative, connecting employment and training opportunities to jobseekers. The main aim is to provide real job opportunities for local people.

WHO WILL BE THERE?

The Centrelink Jobs Expo will bring together employers, industry groups, recruitment providers, government and community organisations, as well as training and education providers. There will also be special guests and other activities to entertain and engage visitors. Local job seekers are being personally invited to attend the Expo. Special announcements, advertising and promotion will ensure a huge turnout on the day.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

You'll be provided with all the essentials to make your exhibit a success, including:

- Exhibition stall including a backboard, table and chairs
- A sign featuring your company name
- Access to people looking for employment and training opportunities
- Promotion of your job vacancies and job pathways on the Centrelink Jobs Expo 'Jobs Board'
- Promotion of your business or organisation on the day
- Light refreshments.

All this will be provided at no cost.
