

National Broadband Network (NBN) Construction Opportunities

Are you a competitive and capable supplier, or service provider who would like to identify opportunities to work with the prime contractors during the construction of The National Broadband Network (NBN)?

During the construction of the NBN project, the Industry Capability Network (ICN) is seeking to maximise the participation of SME's right across Australia. This is being done by engaging with the NBN Co. to identify ANZ products and by working closely with the prime contractors appointed to construct the NBN to develop their supply chain.

As part of this National Response, ICN has appointed Dr David Anderson as the National Sector Manager – NBN. David will be working with government, industry, and local suppliers to help maximise Australian and New Zealand content for the national rollout of the National Broadband Network.

If you are an SME with the qualifications, services or capacity to work on The National Broadband Network (NBN), you are invited to attend a free information session with ICN to find out how to participate and learn what is expected to be required during construction of the NBN and how to get involved. During these sessions ICN will provide examples of how these activities are already benefiting ANZ industry.
